Stephen McDonald is recognised as one of Australia's leading public law Senior Counsel. Stephen accepts briefs in appeals in all areas of law, both civil and criminal.

Stephen has appeared as counsel in the Supreme Court of South Australia, the Federal Court of Australia and other State and federal courts. He has appeared in several significant cases in the High Court in the areas of constitutional law, administrative law and criminal law. He also has an extensive advice practice.

Prior to commencing practice at the Bar, Stephen was a Senior Solicitor at the South Australian Crown Solicitor's Office. He was previously the Research Assistant to the Solicitor-General for South Australia, Chris Kourakis SC (now Chief Justice of South Australia), and Associate to Justice Richard White of the Supreme Court of South Australia (later a Justice of the Federal Court).

Stephen is also an Adjunct Associate Professor at the University of Adelaide Law School. He is the co-author of a student text on Administrative Law, and has taught in Constitutional Law and Administrative Law.
